DEAR WURRA WURRA

Honest, do you believe that Japan and America will go to war? A friend of mine, a packer in a Japanese house, says the Japa are mighty cocky of late and he often feels like swatting a few of them, but he is afeaid it might make trouble, and he's a man of peace with nine children and a sick wife. He would like your opinion. Yours in suspense JOHN H. M'GONIOLE

So you would put me into the first class in diplomacy, John. Well, that job is no in my line, but I'll give you my ordnion. Just for the sake of your friend and his long, weak family. I don't believe the Japs mean to must us, but I don't March 9-Engene P. Post, No. 19 Cath. believe them when they say they love us. I don't believe we want to fight the Japs, but I don't think we'd care a button if we did.
